ASSOCIATE BRIDGET HARRIS RECOGNIZED AS FEATURED SPEAKER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA SCHOOL OF LAW SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

July 5, 2022

Lightfoot associate Bridget Harris has been recognized as a featured speaker at The University of Alabama's School of Law Summer Scholars Program.

Each year, the University of Alabama Summer Scholars program hosts diverse and talented undergraduate students from across the country who are interested in attending law school. Harris' presentation, "Introduction to Litigation Discovery" covered pre-trial discovery tactics, with a focus on depositions.

Harris is no stranger to the The University of Alabama School of Law. As of last year, she teaches a course on Civil Pre-Trial Advocacy as an Adjunct Professor of Law. Harris has been recognized by the Burton Awards, The National Black Lawyers and Law360 for her work, writing and professional accomplishments. At Lightfoot, she serves on the firm's Hiring Committee and works primarily in cases of product liability, catastrophic injury, medical malpractice and commercial litigation.
