CHIPS PRUET RECOGNIZED AS A BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS JOURNAL 2024 BEST OF THE BAR HONOREE

February 7, 2024

The Birmingham Business Journal has named Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC partner David “Chips” Pruet as a 2024 Best of the Bar honoree. This year’s honorees represent a range of practice areas, playing pivotal roles in their firms and bolstering Birmingham’s economy. Selected for his contributions to the legal landscape, Pruet’s recognition highlights his impactful work in various sectors, including construction, healthcare, oil and gas and real estate, with special expertise in handling shareholder rights litigation.

“We are very proud of Chips for receiving this career-long achievement—it’s a true testament to his impact on our legal and business communities,” said Lightfoot managing partner Melody Eagan. “Having an experienced litigator like Chips, who excels in navigating the most complex commercial cases, is invaluable. This recognition not only celebrates his career but also underscores the critical role he plays in representing our clients with unparalleled expertise and dedication.”

With two decades of front-line trial and courtroom experience across the Southeast, Pruet’s litigation experience has not only advanced the firm but significantly influenced the broader business and legal communities.
