GRANT BRYAN NAMED FELLOW OF LAWYERS FOR CIVIL JUSTICE

March 9, 2026

Lightfoot, Franklin & White associate Grant Bryan has been named to the 2026 class of Lawyers for Civil Justice Fellows.

The LCJ Fellows program enables attorneys to engage in rewarding policy work while collaborating with some of the most seasoned and highly regarded defense and corporate counsel in the country. It seeks to identify and mentor rising defense bar leaders while incorporating their perspectives on litigation reform.

During the three-year fellowship, Bryan will participate in committee calls and meetings and engage in research and writing.

Bryan joined Lightfoot in 2024 after serving as the deputy chief for the Child Abuse, Sex Crimes, and Family Violence Unit of the Bexar County District Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted over 60 jury trials.
