Lightfoot

NEWS & INSIGHTS

LIGHTFOOT ANNOUNCES SUMMER CLERK CLASS OF 2025

June 23, 2025

Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC welcomes its 2025 class of summer clerks. The group comprises 17 first- and second-year law students from four different schools.

This year's participants are:

- Davis Boland, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Jackson Clancy, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Kiana Dorsey, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Tanner Hines, Washington & Lee University (2L)
- Malik Howard, Cumberland School of Law (2L)
- Sarah Frances Jackson, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Hope Methvin, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Abby Vandiver, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Andrew Weisenfeld, University of Alabama School of Law (2L)
- Preston Antes, University of Alabama School of Law (1L)
- Sarah Beth Corona, University of Alabama School of Law (1L)
- Robert Dickinson, Cumberland School of Law (1L)
- Martha Ernest, University of Alabama School of Law (1L)
- Sam Guerrero, University of Virginia School of Law (1L)
- Bess Martin, University of Virginia School of Law (1L)
- Sloane Saxon, Cumberland School of Law (1L)
- Kimberly Short, University of Alabama School of Law (1L)

Lightfoot's six-week, in-person summer associate program immerses students in all elements and phases of litigation at the firm's Birmingham office. Summer clerks gain invaluable firsthand experience through involvement in the real-world life of a Lightfoot trial lawyer by attending depositions, observing trials and contributing to meaningful assignments for top-tier clients. They also receive focused training and mentorship throughout the program, including sessions on the art of jury persuasion and mock argument presentations in a local courtroom.