Lightfoot

NEWS & INSIGHTS

LIGHTFOOT, FRANKLIN & WHITE ANNOUNCES 2019 SUMMER ASSOCIATE CLASS

June 23, 2019

Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC is pleased to announce its 2019 class of summer associates. With three clerks returning for their second summer at Lightfoot, the class consists of 13 first-year and second-year law students from eight different law schools across the country.

“We are pleased to welcome these law students to Lightfoot for our summer associate program,” said Lightfoot managing partner Melody Eagan. “We look forward to working with this talented group of future attorneys.”

The Lightfoot 2019 summer associate class includes:

First-year law students

- Molly Brannan (Vanderbilt University Law School)
- Bri Buckner-McCluney (University of Mississippi School of Law)
- Blake Harper (Cumberland School of Law
- Tatum Jackson (University of Alabama School of Law)
- Josh Short (University of Virginia School of Law)
- Maxine Walters (Georgetown University Law Center)
- Virginia Wright (Harvard Law School)

Second-year law students

- Chris Etheredge (Washington & Lee University School of Law)
- Thomas Geeker (Washington & Lee University School of Law)
- Brooke Messina (Cumberland School of Law)
- Richard Rosario (Vanderbilt University Law School)
- Drey Russell (University of Mississippi School of Law)
- Wesley Smithart (University of Alabama School of Law)