WARREN NASH NAMED 2024 C-SUITE AWARDS HONOREE BY BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS JOURNAL

June 18, 2024

Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC chief financial officer (CFO) and executive director Warren Nash has been named among 2024's C-Suite Awards by the Birmingham Business Journal. This award recognizes C-suite leaders who have gone above and beyond while contributing to the success of their companies.

"Our firm takes immense pride in Warren's recognition, which underscores his tremendous value to Lightfoot," said managing partner Melody Eagan. "His business acumen makes him a trusted business advisor to the entire firm, playing a crucial role not only in our financial stability but also in guiding our strategic growth trajectory."

Lightfoot announced a strategic reorganization of the firm's management structure this March, elevating Nash to the position of executive director. He is now responsible for Lightfoot's overall business strategies while continuing to serve as CFO. This move well positions Lightfoot for its next phase of business growth, enabling the firm to strengthen its internal and administrative infrastructure.

Nash joined Lightfoot in 2018 as the firm's CFO. He attended the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis and earned his bachelor's degree in banking and finance from Mississippi State University. He holds an MBA with a concentration in macroeconomics from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and a Master's degree in theological studies from Emory University. He is also a graduate of the American Bankers Association's Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

Nash will be honored at the 2024 C-Suite Awards on June 13, alongside his fellow honorees.
