Amie Vague is an accomplished trial lawyer who brings an individualized strategy to each case.

Amie maintains a varied practice that includes trial and appellate matters involving product liability, consumer fraud, medical malpractice, professional liability, commercial litigation, employment law, and white-collar criminal defense and corporate investigations. She represents clients across a range of industries, including automotive, transportation, pest control and healthcare.

Handling matters in forums nationwide, Amie tailors her approach and strategy to meet each client's unique needs and goals. When the stakes are highest, she brings a calm and steady presence to her work, identifying solutions that account for a client's business as a whole.

Amie has successfully represented clients in a variety of high-stakes matters, including:

- Delivering an oral argument before the 11th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals to secure defense victories in racial and age discrimination cases for Morris-Shea, a deep foundation contractor.
- Securing dismissal for a sales executive of Pilgrim's Pride after the client was targeted by the Department of Justice in a price-fixing enforcement action.
- Obtaining summary judgment for Mintz Levin when the firm faced a legal malpractice suit regarding advice they provided to a biotech company.
- Earning a judgment as a matter of law on behalf of a cardiologist accused of medical malpractice
- Numerous favorable arbitration settlements for a leading national pest control company.

Since joining Lightfoot in 2015, Amie has served on the firm's recruiting committee and was named hiring partner in 2025. In that role, she leads Lightfoot's recruiting programs and oversees the professional development of new lawyers, directly shaping the future of the firm.
