Matt Winne always puts his clients first.

Matt is a determined advocate who takes pride in navigating efficiently through even the most daunting issues. From his experience working for veteran plaintiff attorneys to his time clerking for a superior court judge, Matt has gained valuable experience that he uses to represent clients in civil litigation. To date, he has handled matters in a wide variety of practice areas, including product liability, medical malpractice and First Amendment law.

Matt graduated cum laude from the University of Alabama School of Law, where he was a senior editor of the Alabama Law Review and a member of the John A. Campbell Moot Court Board. In addition to working various legal research jobs throughout law school, he also served on the Executive Council of the school's Federalist Society chapter and achieved top accolades for his legal research and trial advocacy skills.

A native Atlantan, Matt is a lifelong Auburn Tiger and continues to enjoy traveling to the Plains for games with his family. When he's not in the office or at a game, he enjoys golfing, fishing and skiing.
