Lightfoot

FIRE & EXPLOSION

Fire and explosion cases demand Lightfoot's experienced, detail-oriented litigation counsel.

When it comes to representing clients in fire and explosion litigation, Lightfoot’s lawyers are a triple threat: They have the courtroom experience, scientific understanding and detail-oriented approach these complex cases demand. Because of this combination, we have become a go-to firm for this type of work, representing clients around the country in claims and lawsuits involving catastrophic injuries, deaths and costly property damage. Whether a massive explosion, a simple structure fire, a multimillion-dollar property loss or a traumatic burn injury, Lightfoot's skilled lawyers are ready to dig in and tackle the most challenging of cases, big or small.

Lightfoot's years of experience have allowed us to develop a fine-tuned process that covers everything from site inspections through trial. We know favorable outcomes depend on the details, such as tracking down hard-to-find witnesses and conducting a careful examination of all evidence. Our lawyers never take anything at face value.

Expert witnesses represent a crucial part of any fire and explosion lawsuit. Whether representing plaintiffs or defendants, Lightfoot works with experts to develop our client’s side of the story and present it in a clear, concise and compelling manner. Our deep scientific knowledge in this area makes us well-equipped to pick apart an opposing expert’s theory and establish the groundwork for potential exclusion.

Above all else, we serve our clients. That means we keep their goals in mind every step of the way. Whether that means seeking early resolution or taking the case through trial, we factor the unique needs of each particular client into every decision we make.
